

PRAYING PSALM 18 (PART III)

“Who is God...” (Psalm 118:31)?

As a warrior, David answers this question in praise (31-45). He is the God who arms me with strength. He makes my feet like those of a deer and sets me on high places. He teaches me how to make war. He is my shield of protection. He keeps me from slipping. He arms me with strength for the battle. He gives me victory over my enemies. He delivers me from the strivings of the people, by making him successful.

When you are in a spiritual battle go to prayer, and remember who God is. He is your strength. He will place you on the high ground of victory. He will teach you everything you need to know about spiritual warfare when you submit to Him. He will protect you. He will keep you from fatal mistakes. He will give your strength to do battle. He will give you victory over the powers of darkness. He will save you from the criticism of your enemies by giving you success. God is everything you need. Proclaim that to yourself and to Him.
