

PRAYING PSALM 70

“Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You...” Psalm 70:4).

Almost the whole psalm is found in Psalm 35. The theme is rejoicing in God. David considered himself as poor and needy spiritually. He trusted in God as his help. David rejoiced in God knowing He would turn back his enemies. He furthermore stated that all those who seek God could rejoice and be glad.

We are all poor and needy. We have nothing to give God. We have nothing God needs. What are we to rejoice in? We are to rejoice that God is everything we need. He is our total resource. We draw everything from Him – our faith, our righteousness, our gifts and callings, and our victory. Take time and rejoice in His strength for your weakness. Rejoicing in God is the way we manifest our trust in Him.
