

PRAYING PSALM 99

“The Lord reigns; Let the peoples tremble” (Psalm 99:1).

In this psalm God’s holiness is manifested. 1. BY HIS THRONE (1-3). He dwells between the cherubim. He is high above all the peoples. He is holy. 2. BY HIS JUSTICE (4-5). The King’s strength loves justice. He is holy. 3. BY HIS VENGEANCE (6-9). You took vengeance on their deeds. The Lord our God is holy.

It should amaze you that you can pray to a holy God. He dwells between cherubim who cry out day and night, “Holy, Holy, Holy.” The lack of justice on earth grieves His holiness. God’s holiness demands justice, and one day He will bring it. God’s holy justice will be manifest in holy vengeance. Pray for it, and remember that justice is not for you and me to mete out. Only the holy One has the right to do that.
